Debtor.

NOTICE OF APPEARANCE AND REQUEST FOR SERVICE

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that on February 19, 2003, Louis S. Robles, counsel for certain asbestos creditors in this matter, was suspended from the practice of law in the State of Florida by the Supreme Court of Florida. A copy of the Order entered by the Supreme Court of Florida suspending Louis S. Robles from practicing law in the State of Florida is attached hereto as Exhibit "A". On February 19, 2003, the law firms of Louis S. Robles, P.A., and The Robles Law Center, P.A. (the "Robles law firms") filed assignments for the benefit of creditors and are no longer engaged in the practice of law.

On February 20, 2003, Thomas Tew, a partner in Tew Cardenas Rebak Kellogg Lehman DeMaria Tague Raymond & Levine L.L.P., was appointed Inventory Attorney for the approximately 13,000 cases/files of Louis S. Robles and/or his affiliated entities, including The Robles Law Center, P.A. and Louis S. Robles, P.A. A copy of the Order entered by the Circuit Court of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit in and for Miami-Dade County appointing Thomas Tew as Inventory Attorney is attached hereto as Exhibit "B".

By Order dated March 7, 2003, the Circuit Court authorized the Inventory Attorney to engage the law firm of Tew Cardenas as his counsel, attached hereto as Exhibit "C".

Pursuant to the Supreme Court and the Circuit Court's orders, the Inventory Attorney has established trust accounts to receive any funds due the Robles law firms. All sums due Louis S. Robles, P.A. or the Robles Law Center, P.A. should be made payable to either the "Inventory Attorney Trust Account for Louis S. Robles, P.A.", or the "Inventory Attorney Trust Account for the Robles Law Center, P.A.", as the case may be, in the care of Tew Cardenas at 201 South Biscayne Boulevard, Suite 2600, Miami, Florida 33131.

Accordingly, the undersigned counsel and law firm hereby makes their appearance in the above-captioned bankruptcy case as Inventory Attorneys on behalf of all clients of the Robles law firms. Please serve copies of all pleadings, motions, objections, responses, notices and any other court papers on the undersigned law firm.

Dated: March 20, 2003.

In Re: PETITION FOR APPOINTMENT
OF INVENTORY ATTORNEY
FOR LOUIS STEVEN ROBLES

Circuit Court Case
No. 03-11 CA 60

ORDER APPOINTING INVENTORY ATTORNEY

THIS CAUSE having come on to be heard upon the Amended Petition of The Florida Bar dated February 19, 2003, for appointment of an inventory attorney pursuant to Rule 1-3.8, Rules Regulating The Florida Bar and the Court being otherwise fully advised in the premises and finding that Louis Steven Robles (hereafter referred to as Robles), is a member of The Florida Bar, albeit suspended pursuant to Florida Supreme Court Order dated February 19, 2003, and that in order to protect the rights of Robles' clients, it is

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:

1. That Thomas Tew, Esquire is hereby appointed as inventory attorney for Robles with full powers and duties pursuant to Rule 1-3.8, Rules Regulating the Florida Bar to carry out the function as inventory attorney.
2. The inventory attorney is directed to proceed as soon as possible to inventory all files of Robles and to take such action as seems indicated to protect the interests of all of Robles' clients.
3. The inventory attorney is specifically authorized to accept employment as attorney in connection with the client matters found in the files inventoried as long as each client is given a free choice with regard to the further employment of counsel.

EXHIBIT "B"

4. The inventory attorney shall not be obligated to accept employment as attorney in connection with any or all the active cases found in the files inventoried, but may, at his option, refuse to handle such files as he deems fit and proper.

5. The inventory attorney shall within 30 days of this order furnish a progress report to this Court with copies to The Florida Bar and shall thereafter furnish periodic progress reports as this Court may direct until completion of the duties as inventory attorney and approval of a final report by this Court.

6. The Clerk of this Court shall issue, upon application of the inventory attorney, such writs as may be necessary to carry out this order, upon further order of Court.

7. The inventory attorney shall have specific authority to have access to the records of any and all bank accounts of Robles, whether such bank account is individual, escrow, trust, estate or in any representative capacity.

DONE AND ORDERED in Miami, Miami-Dade County, Florida this 20 day of February, 2003.
